Bright Prospects.

J. B. Hickman, a prominent real estate man of Kansas City, is in Ardmore for a few days looking after some investments heretofore made by him. "You have a splendid town," said Mr. Hickman, "and there are fine opportunities to make money in the Indian Territory. Statehood seems to be assured. With representation in congress no difficulty will be had in getting the restrictions removed. The people, and especially men with money to invest have their eyes on the Territory, and they are just waiting for an opportunity to invest. I have made money on everything I touched in the Territory, and so can any man who invests in real estate. It is simply a case of continuous rise. You can't lose. The next time I come here I hope to bring a party of rich Missourians with me, all of whom are anxious to be shown."

FUNDS FOR HARGROVE COLLEGE.

Committee Appointed to Raise Funds. Vast Improvements to be Made.

The committee appointed yesterday afternoon by the board of directors of Hargrove College at a meeting of that body, to raise funds for the erection of additional dormitories and improvement of the college buildings and grounds, consisting of Messrs. R. W. Randol, Lee Cruce and W. S. W. Veron, will begin the work of raising funds at once. These gentlemen are all old patrons of the college and have given their time and money more than once to the interests of the institution and who are interested in its continued success. They will exert every influence to raise the amount needed to make the necessary improvements on the college buildings and it is the intention of the board of trustees to make Hargrove college the leading educational institution in the two territories. The scholastic year just ended has been the best the institution has ever enjoyed. The action of the board in retaining Dr. J. M. Gross as president of the college is very acceptable to the residents of Ardmore and the patrons of the college. Dr. Gross assumed charge of the college when that institution was in debt and running at a loss, one year ago. Today the college has not a dollar of indebtedness to carry and is raising money to make improvements that will enable the institution to care for twice the number of students that we can attendance the past year.

The high praise tendered Dr. Gross at the meeting of the directors is an example of the esteem in which he is held by the board and the patrons of the college.

Dr. Gross is making preparations for issuing a handsome catalogue of the college, which will be distributed to all parts of the surrounding country. Already many students have been enrolled for the next term and it is the opinion that the brightest prospects are now before the institution.

Let the citizens of Ardmore and surrounding country flock to the aid of the college. A fine educational institution is worth much to any town.

U., one of Ardmore's strongest organizations, has a president, Mrs. Dr. Carr, always on the lookout for the comfort of others. She has secured the services of Mrs. St. John, the field evangelist for the W. C. T. U., and a lecturer at the greatest summer chautauqua in this country, a woman of great travel and broader learning who, having been a teacher, knows how to talk to all in general and to the teacher in particular. At the Christian church tomorrow night she will give her famous lecture, "The How and What of Reading," illustrated. Remember that everybody is invited and the lecture is free. At the Christian church at 8 p. m.

ACQUITTED OF FORGERY.

S. W. Scrivner Found Not Guilty of That Charge—Turned Loose.

S. W. Scrivner was tried in the commissioner's court this morning on a charge of forgery. The charge was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hays. All the parties in the case live at Powell. Scrivner was charged with forging the name of Mr. and Mrs. Hays to an order to secure a marriage license. The license was secured and Scrivner was married to the step-daughter of Hays. A warrant for his arrest was sworn out and he was tried and found not guilty. Commissioner Robnett found that there was no law to prohibit a man from securing a marriage license in that manner. The young couple went away rejoicing.

THE OLD FLAG HONORED.

Today 129th Anniversary of the Birth of the Banner of Beauty and Grace.

Today, June 14th, is the one hundred and twenty-ninth anniversary of the birth of the American flag.

One hundred and twenty-nine years ago, today, a bill was introduced into congress, which was then in session at Independence Hall at Philadelphia, to the effect that a National Flag be established. The bill read, "Resolved that the Flag of the 13 United Colonies be 13 stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be 13 stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation." The bill passed and the flag which had theretofore been the serpent and numerous other emblems was discarded. The design of the flag was worked out by Betsy Ross, of Philadelphia, who made the first flag. And a woman's deft fingers made all the flags that were in use for sixty years after the National Flag was established. Since that time Old Glory has waved over many a battle field and has been carried to foreign countries and through dangers by her sturdy sons. In all she has ever waved proudly over the "Home of the Brave, and the Land of the Free."

The day has been aptly kept in Ardmore, and the stars and stripes can be seen floating to the breeze from many a home and flag post. The postoffice, court house and a number of other public buildings were also decorated. Among the prettiest decorations that were arranged in the city was at the home of Col. David Redfield. Col. Redfield is an ex-Federal soldier and is Past Department Commander of the G. A. R. He has a banner which he procured at the National Encampment of the G. A. R., at Boston, three years ago, to which he has pinned numerous badges. This emblem is surrounded by smaller flags and presents a pretty and inspiring sight.

THE LOCAL ELKS TO DENVER

An Arrangement Committee Appointed—Tulsa Invites Ardmore.

A committee has been appointed by the local lodge of Elks to look after all arrangements concerning the proposed trip to Denver to attend the annual reunion of the grand lodge, which will be held there for three days, beginning July 16. This committee is composed of R. L. Sanders, A. W. Dunham and E. E. Gullet. To this committee is assigned the task of finding out the number of Elks who will attend the convention from the lodge here, to attend to the decoration of the car, and to secure headquarters for the party at Denver. The committee is at work on their several duties and from the indications a good crowd of Ardmore "Bills" will be in attendance at the convention. An invitation has been received by the local lodge from the lodge at Tulsa to the effect that the various territory lodges congregate at Tulsa and all territory Elks go by special train from there. The committee will determine the plans in the future as to the route to be taken.

A number of ladies will be in the party which goes from the territory, and the trip in itself will be a pleasant one.

The program of entertainment prepared by the Denver Elks will be grand. Denver citizens have spared neither expense or time in preparing for the entertainment of the Elks and all who attend will have a royal time.
